A. C. Tinsley attended the marriage of Miss Tinsley and Fred Whitney, which took place in Newberry last week.—Spartanburg Journal, 22nd.

Major J. F. Caldwell, his many friends are glad to see him out again after a spell of rheumatism in the foot for three weeks.

Mr. W. S. Croker, who has been staying with his father, the Rev. T. C. Croker, on R. F. D. No. 1, has gone to Forest City, to take charge of a newspaper.

Mr. W. S. Croker, of Newberry, S. C., formerly of Charlotte, was a business visitor in Charlotte yesterday registered at the Buford hotel.—Charlotte Observer, 22nd.

Mrs. John M. Teague, who, with Mr. Teague moved to Newberry several weeks ago, spent the latter part of last week in the city attending the fair.—Laurens Advertiser, 22nd.

Miss Florence Risor, of Selma, Ala., who has been visiting in Newberry, arrived yesterday in Greenville to be the guest of the Misses Moss.—Greenville News, 19th.

Mrs. Janie Smith, of Spartanburg, is visiting Mrs. J. L. Keitt.

Walter Wise, of Property, was one of the recent visitors in Columbia.—Record, 22nd.

Rev. P. E. Shealy at the Lutheran synod in Columbia this week was elected alternate delegate from South Carolina to the Georgia synod, and the Rev. J. A. Linn as principal delegate to the North Carolina synod.

Mrs. T. J. Mayes, regent for Newberry, with Mrs. J. Henry Harms as delegate will meet in Columbia November 11-14 at the annual convention of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Election of John F. Livingston, of Columbia, to the position of president of the Columbia, Newberry & Laurens railroad comes as gratifying news to Mr. Livingston's many friends, especially his railroad friends.—The State.

Pastor J. N. Booth: "Dear Courier: Please stop going to Sumter route 1 and come to 1203 Drayton street, Newberry, S. C., and oblige." We wish this good pastor and staunch friend great success in his new work. He takes charge of the second Baptist church of Newberry.—Baptist Courier, 23rd.

Mr. C. C. Davis, in his automobile and accompanied by his two little sons, Cornelius and Edward, went to Hendersonville this week and have returned with Miss Lula Waldrop, of Hendersonville, and Miss Jennie Ray, of Waynesville, N. C., nieces of Mr. Davis. Miss Waldrop will spend the winter here.

Newberry's football manager, J. L. Keitt, Jr., is expected in Columbia today and will make final arrangements for the game. The team will come to the city on Tuesday afternoon of the fair, retiring early to be in shape for the game.—The State, 23rd. They are making great preparations in Columbia for the battle with Newberry.

Mayor Z. F. Wright is booked for a speech at a meeting in Columbia on the night of October 28—the night before the Newberry-Clinton football game at the fair grounds, "for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm in the annual football game between the two institutions." The central committee looking after arrangements is as follows: F. W. Cappelmann, Dr. A. J. Bedenbaugh, T. Q. Boozer, J. L. Williams and C. P. Barr.

Among the names of delegates to the Lutheran Synod of South Carolina, as published in Tuesday's State, this week in Columbia, are W. B. Boinest, Pomaria; Rev. E. W. Leslie, Prosperity; Rev. Edw. Fulenwider, Newberry; Rev. S. P. Koon, Silverstreet; H. C. Holloway, Newberry; Rev. Z. W. Bedenbaugh, Prosperity; Rev. Y. von A. Riser, Dr. O. B. Mayer, Newberry; Dr. Geo. Y. Hunter, Prosperity; Rev. Long, Little Mountain; Prof. S. J. Derrick, Newberry.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Bryan is in town, Not William Jennings, but the Colonel Bryan from Greenville.

Well, now, just didn't the State fair roll up on you almost before you knew it?

You will see in a few days, surely, what that pile of sand near the post-office is for.

That was a big bale of cotton sold by Mr. John H. Wicker Tuesday. It weighed 724 pounds and brought $102.20, exclusive of the worth of the seed.

Some citizens of this place are hungry for pumpkin yam potatoes. There would be a ready-sale at this market for the pumpkin yam.

Persons are being killed by automobiles everywhere except in Newberry. It is getting to be an everyday occurrence somewhere.

Postmaster Hill had Italian rye sowed on the two little plats fronting the postoffice. Janitor Walter Dickert sowed the rye Tuesday. Watch for its appearance, and watch it grow.

A meeting of Jasper chapter, D. A. R., is called for Monday 27th at the home of Mrs. J. T. Mayes, 4 p. m. Matters of importance will be considered before the meeting of conference at Columbia.

The moving pictures that talk are among the most wonderful scientific inventions that have been perfected recently.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat. Would that they would come here for a long run.

At the Laurens county fair last week a former Newberry lady, Miss Beta Meredith, won a prize for best riding by lady and a Laurens county citizen who once lived in Newberry, Mr. W. F. Wright, won a prize for best pair of geese.

Sweet potatoes in good quantity, from the Rev. T. H. Garrett, were brought to The Herald and News office Tuesday, for which are returned the thanks of the editor. It is a nice appropriate and seasonable gift much appreciated.

That was a "splendid" editorial in Tuesday's Observer, written for "Cub Reporters," and "we," The Herald and News reporter, agree with it. But when a newspaper man is both editor and reporter it is safe to say that "a good reporter is much rarer than a good editor."

The stockholders were much pleased with the annual report of the condition of the C. N. & L. and thanked both the officers and the men for their excellent work.—Columbia Record in Reporting meeting of stockholders C. N. & L. in Columbia this week. Mr. Geo. S. Mower is a member of the board of directors re-elected.

The life insurance agents of the State are to meet in Columbia on the 29th instant. Search South Carolina with the most powerful searchlight and there cannot be found anywhere else in the State a better allround set of insurance agents, taken as a whole, than is to be found in this same insurance-clad city of Newberry.

The question is not where do the pins or the mules go, but where the insurance agents. You think surely the last one has come when lo and behold here comes another. Whence do they come and whither do they go? They are like the wind, "Thou nearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth."

A business man of Talladega, Ala., has written President John M. Kinard, of the Commercial bank, for a copy of Pollyanna, the "glad book," as he believes from what he has read (he takes The Herald and News) that the book would be of great value to Talladega. "Everybody is" wanting to read it in Newberry since the last issue of The Herald and News.

There is a bunch of keys that has been at this office for months waiting for the owner. It looks like a valuable bunch of keys. It has a coca-cola bottle opener on it. Describe some of the keys and claim the bunch. The reporter is tired of it. "We," that is, he, would like to see the man who lost it. You may have it by naming the tag that is on it.

In speaking of Mr. John F. Livingston, the head of the C. N. & L. the Columbia Record says: "Mr. Livingston is a well known railroad man in South Carolina, besides being noted for his ability and industrious qualities. Mr. Livingston was first recognized as a railroad man of splendid promise when he was employed in the Columbia office of the road which he will now govern."

There will be a concert in the High school building, on the night of the 24th, Friday, at 8.30 o'clock. It was been sometime since local talent gave an exhibition in Newberry and the citizens are eager for something of the kind. Newberry has decided talent and the concert Friday night promises to be most enjoyable. It is confidently expected that a large crowd will be out on that occasion.

The Laurens Advertiser speaks of the "splendid" exhibition of the county's resources last Friday. From the Advertiser's account the Laurens county fair was "splendid," although "splendid" is not considered good form, not by "us," but by some other writers. "We" only mention it here to show how easy it is to fall into the error, if error, and how hard it is to pass the crucible of exactness.

Everybody wants to read Pollyanna. You follow the reporter and "you will wear diamonds," figuratively speaking. Running high and still climbing is the question put to him, what kind of a book is it? The "unanimosity" of the question is very "prevalent" and it seems that The Herald and News struck another popular chord in its last issue. "Will wear diamonds," means, in this instance, pearls and gems of thought.

A night school will be opened by Mrs. H. O. Ray on November 1. Mrs. Ray manages the Newberry Business school, and this night school is for the benefit of those who cannot attend the day sessions. There will be three lessons a week at the night school. All wishing to enrol for this school must apply to Mrs. Ray before the first of November. Parties wishing to take bookkeeping at the Newberry Business school will communicate with Mrs. Ray.

A reporter is like other ordinary and common people, he sometimes slips up in the use of words, forgets, blunders and is guilty of other little misdeeds of omission and commission. No man can or should be always serious, or humorous, or in any one condition, and it is hard for anybody to be always dignified. This reporter doesn't try to follow any set rules—he has a way "all his own." The best way is to be natural and not put on—just do the best you can. There is too much foolishness in the world—too much etiquette. Be original and don't borrow without giving credit is what this reporter would say.

Something to Read About.

Place—Vacant store opposite Newberry hotel.

A Few Kinks and Hints For "Would-be Contestants" Desiring to Enter Contest

This Is Get Busy Week.—The Herald and News' Contest Now On.—Now Is The Time to Enter Yours, If or Nominate a Friend.

Time, tide, railway trains and "contestants" wait on no man. Today, now, is the time to enter the contest, if you intend doing so. Interest is rapidly increasing, and, the coming week will doubtless see our list of nominees doubled and, "things mightily" around the office of The Herald and News.

Next week each and every prize to be given away at the close of contest, will be on display at different business houses in the city, and, the public is cordially invited to call around and "have a look," at some very elegant prizes that will be carried off by some of your neighbors when the contest closes, unless you "step lively" than you have heretofore.

Business Houses of Newberry Will Show Their Liberality and Co-operation by Awarding Inducement Prizes Weekly. Upon the arrival of the contest manager in our city, a special call was made upon each merchant or business house, endeavoring to procure from them "inducement prizes" to be awarded each week to the contestants doing the most work. We take pleasure in announcing that almost every business house has donated a "special prize." Beginning with Tuesday's paper the first two prizes will be announced for next week, each succeeding Tuesday from now until close of contest "very attractive weekly prizes will be awarded" to the two best workers.

If you wish to win "by a very little effort" some of the special prizes to be given away it's time "to sit up" and appear to be something more than

HAIR DOESN'T DIE—

IT HAS TO BE KILLED

Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body. But it is often killed through neglect or misuse. Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull-looking, is entirely to blame because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to take care of the hair—easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, delightfully perfumed with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made—Gilder & Weeks, Newberry, S. C.

"an interested onlooker." Remember "life holds no greater regret than the memory of a wasted opportunity." What will you do? Will you stand idly by and dumbly envy the achievements of your more aggressive and discerning sisters, or will you make "the big try now," finish up a whirlwind campaign and relish the joy and glory of victory by having yourself declared "the winner" of perhaps the grand prize an $800.00 H. P. Nelson Player piano, or perhaps another of the elegant prizes offered.

Don't sit and "soliloquize," you'll have time enuf for that after the contest is over, but say to yourself "what it takes to win I have it," a little pluck, a little self-confidence, and a little "I will show them that I can." List of Nominees in Herald and News' Prize Voting Contest, City.

NOT ONLY IN NEWBERRY.

Similar Cases Occur Daily In This Vicinity.

Not only here in Newberry but in our neighboring towns, the same good story is heard. An encouraging instance from Prosperity is given here, and will be read by us with great interest.

Mrs. J. M. Wheeler, Prosperity, S. C., says: "My kidneys were disordered for a long time, causing terrible pains through my loins and limbs. There was also a constant ache in my back and some times I could scarcely get about. The kidney secretions were unnatural and annoyed me greatly. I consulted several physicians and tried a number of kidney remedies, but did not improve in the least. I had about given up the hope of ever being cured, when my son-in-law procured a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills for me at W. E. Pelham & Son's drug store. He had read that they were good for kidney trouble and induced me to try them. I did so and after I had taken two boxes, the backache had gone and my kidneys were normal. I will always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to friends."
